

Proclamation

City of Tremonton, Utah

Honoring the Sacrifice and Bravery of Sergeant Lee Sorensen, Officer Eric Estrada, Sheriff's Deputy Mike Allred, and K9 Azula, and Recognizing the Ongoing Fight Against Domestic Violence

WHEREAS, the City of Tremonton and its citizens are grieving the tragic loss of Sergeant Lee Sorensen and Officer Eric Estrada of the Tremonton/Garland Police Department, and the wounding of Box Elder County Sheriff's Deputy Mike Allred and K9 Officer Azula in the line of duty; and

WHEREAS, these officers and K9 Azula served with honor, courage, and selfless dedication, standing as guardians of peace and protectors of our community; and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Sorensen, Officer Estrada, Deputy Allred, and K9 Azula exemplified the highest ideals of public safety and law enforcement, responding with bravery in the face of grave danger; and

WHEREAS, the families, loved ones, and colleagues of these heroes carry the deep sorrow of their sacrifice, but also the enduring legacy of their service, commitment, and love for the community they protected; and

WHEREAS, this tragedy arose from the terrible reality of domestic violence, a crisis that devastates lives, tears families apart, and far too often places victims and first responders at risk; and

WHEREAS, the City of Tremonton recognizes the urgent need to raise awareness of domestic violence, provide support to survivors, and work tirelessly with law enforcement and community partners to prevent future tragedies.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lyle Holmgren, Mayor of Tremonton City, together with the Tremonton City Council, do hereby proclaim:

1. That Sergeant Lee Sorensen, Officer Eric Estrada, Deputy Mike Allred, and K9 Azula are recognized, honored, and remembered for their bravery and sacrifice in the line of duty.

2. That the City of Tremonton extends its deepest condolences and unwavering support to their families, fellow officers, and all who grieve their loss.

3. That the City of Tremonton reaffirms its commitment to combating domestic violence by supporting survivors, raising awareness, and working in unity to build a safer community for all.
